

Ryan Wilson

253.740.9261 | ryan@goldpress.com | portfolio.goldpress.com

---

Summary

Internet professional and proven leader with over fifteen years of experience in architecture, development, testing and management. Proficient in the principles and best practices of the software development life cycle and technical team leadership. Experience with large-scale, branded consumer facing websites, internal tools and mobile applications. Organized, results-oriented leader with proven ability in executing strategies with both local and global teams.

---

Skills

- Team leadership; Supervisory management including interviewing, hiring, code reviews, performance reviews and leadership by example
  - Large-scale, high traffic website, full stack and mobile application development
  - Project timeline, estimation, budget and planning management
  - Secure eCommerce application design and development
  - Security/Compliance experience including PCI, PII, Sarbanes-Oxley compliance
  - Responsive and adaptive web application design experience
  - Analytics, operational intelligence and metrics integration, platform strategy
  - Mobile application and web integration with REST/SOAP service architectures
  - SDLC Methodologies - Agile (Scrum), Waterfall, Kanban
  - Front End skills - responsive/adaptive development, HTML5/DHTML, CSS3/LESS/SASS
  - Languages and platforms - PHP, JavaScript, AngularJS, Ruby on Rails, SQL, Node, ASP.net, Java
  - Tools - AWS, Docker, Git/Gitlab, Jenkins, Linux/Unix, Apache/Nginx, Atlassian suite
-

Professional Experience

Senior Web Developer - Acceptiva (Mar17-May18)

- Led development of new features for the non-profit donation and admin interfaces
- Drove multiple projects through the full life-cycle from requirements to deployment and support, leading the development team with agile methodologies
- Worked closely with QA, contractors and leadership team to ensure features are on track
- Managed and coordinated database, server OS and enterprise platform upgrades
- Migrated critical web services to AWS, and directed company's internal web strategy

Senior Web Developer - Tommy Bahama (Sep16-Jan17)

- Worked closely with creative and marketing team to add innovative features to drive sales
- Lead for development on AngularJS and Restful interfaces
- Developed Front end features for the Hybris eCommerce system
- Led promotion toward responsive design and mobile first development

Tech Lead/Senior Web Developer - Walt Disney Parks and Resorts Online (Jan11-Sep16)

- Managed development of PHP/Zend applications on Linux/Apache (Redhat Enterprise OS)
- Developed REST and SOAP services for mobile and web consumption
- Tech lead for several successful projects on the Disney Cruise Line website
- Lead for MDX Platform - Focus to deliver Disneyland Paris website responsive development
- Worked closely and formed trusted relationships with business leadership, project management, creative, producers and most importantly my development team
- Responsible for interviewing web developers for my department
- Involved in evaluating new technologies and worked closely with the architecture team
- Proven ability to deliver successful projects and dealing with the normal challenges that occur
- Worked closely with the Analytics team to implement enhanced meta information and Omniture
- Demonstrated clear and timely communication and organization to drive better workflow
- Drive and implement effective solutions to benefit our timeline and budget

Senior Internet Architect – The Seattle Times Company (Oct06-Jan11)

- Lead developer for data cloud project and open interface. Facilitated & led several projects using this data cloud interface, including several mobile apps and search
- Worked closely with members of the newsroom to develop innovative news products
- Promoted development of extensible web services for potential reuse throughout the network
- Real Media OAS and Omniture integration and special advertisement technical implementation
- Worked closely with producers, designers and human factors to lead development with other engineers and contractors throughout projects. Developing both client-side and/or server-side
- Designed, developed and implemented a photo management engine with extensive APIs
- Member of Security Team focused on improving security of web applications and PCI compliance
- Focused on efficient processes, improving CICD, cloud delivery and development environments

Senior Internet Engineer – The Seattle Times Company (Nov04-Oct06)

- NWSources.com and Marketplace sites lead PHP Engineer/Developer
- Development of integration with several 3rd party APIs including Omniture and Google analytics
- Responsible for web server operations – Linux and Solaris with Apache
- Led development for redesign of NWautos.com (worked in tandem with a junior developer)
- Responsible for database design and optimization for web applications
- Developed and improved scheduled, automated data loading procedures

Network Security Consultant – Northwest Computer Support (Sep04-Nov04)

- Worked with clients to improve and fix network and application security
- Organized a suite of tools for security analysis

Web Development Manager – Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle (Feb01- Aug04)

- Responsible for all aspects of the bank's Internet technologies
- Managed web developers, contractors and vendors
- Responsible for all web servers (Win2003 IIS, Win2000 IIS, Apache), Windows clusters, SQL Servers, external and global DNS, and load balancing
- Provided 24x7 support for web applications requiring high-availability
- Automated existing procedures and unit tests to allow reliable monitoring of components
- Designed, led development and implemented custom CMS system
- Implemented high availability web infrastructure with load balancing and automatic failover

Web Development Manager/Owner – GoldPress LLC (Aug99-Feb01)

- Managed small team of developers in many successful projects
- Development on most all PHP, MySQL, Linux and Apache. A few projects with ASP and IIS.

Lead Web Developer – Freei.net/FreeInternet.com (Nov98-Sep99)

- Lead LAMP developer. Working with FreeBSD, Apache, MySQL and PHP/Perl stack
- Proven track record of completing projects ahead of schedule and under budget

---

Certifications and Training

- The Poynter Institute Technology and Journalism - Technical Certification
- Certified Scrum Master
- CompTIA Security+
- Franklin Covey Leadership, Project Management
- Microsoft Certified Professional
- Currently working on PMI Project Management Professional Certification
- Relevant server and technology training: MySQL, Wordpress, Drupal, Adobe Experience Manager, Couchbase, Oracle DB, Oracle Application Server, CFM, Real Media Open Adstream, RedHat RHEL, SUSE